

March Break Camp Information

The following information is provided to assist families, service navigators and community recreation providers identify march break camp options for individuals with disabilities.

Caregivers are encouraged to contact the camp directly to discuss their child's unique interests and support needs to determine if the camp will be a good fit. It is important to set your child up for success.

Every effort is made to ensure that this information is accurate. If you notice information that is incorrect or if we have missed any march break camp options for individuals with disabilities, please email us.
